BRIGHTER HORIZONS ACADEMY COLLEGE PREPARATORY

General Policy

All organizations, clubs, extracurricular activities, athletics and competitions will relate to, support and improve the school curriculum, moral and standards of student life. Gaining a better understanding of human relationships and a sense of personal pride in accomplishment are benefits frequently derived from a good program of student activities. Every organization must have the explicit approval of the principal in order to be a part of the school.

Extracurricular Coordinator:

All school organizations, students and parents, will be under the direction of the Academy's extracurricular coordinator. All meetings, projects, activities and social functions must be approved by the extracurricular coordinator and administration using the "Special Events Request Form."

Student Involvement in More than One Activity:

A student may be enrolled in more than one extracurricular activity. Conflicts in meetings, rehearsal/practice and/or performance times should be resolved with the sponsors.

No penalty to grades, position, etc. is / to be assessed because a student chooses to be involved in more than a single activity
